

TJC To Enter NJCAA Tournament March 20-24

First Opponent Is South Georgia

March 20 at 2:30 p.m. the National Junior College Athletic Association's Basketball Tournament will get underway. Sixteen teams are entered in the tourney and one of them is the Black and Gold of TJC.

Tyler received the right to take part in the tournament after they won the championship in the recent Region XIV Tourney at Gentry Gym. For the past three years the Apache teams have gone to Hutchinson for this important occasion and for three years they have brought honor to TJC. In 1948 in the tournament at Springfield, Missouri, they won sixth place. The next year in Hutchinson, the TJC lads really brought home "the bacon" in the shape of a first place trophy from the National Tourney. And last year, 1950, they returned to Tyler with another trophy signifying that they claimed fourth place in the Nation and were still one of the best teams over the United States.

Each and every student should be on hand to see the basketball team off when they leave for Kansas. It's their duty and privilege as a student of Tyler Junior College to show those boys just how much they want them to win. For the past five months, the roundball boys have been sweating it out in Gentry Gym with long hours of hard practice as Coach Floyd Wagstaff began training them for the position they have gained.

It is to him that we owe our thanks for finding these boys and bringing them to Tyler and then for training them so that we have had the National Recognition such as no other JC has had.

In 1948 when Tyler won the first place championship, three boys were named all Americans. They were Jerry Champion, Jose Palafox, and Bryan Miller. Last year, O'Neal Weaver was named to the All tournament ten.

This year O'Neal will go back to the tournament and it is the hope of TJC that he and a few more Tyler boys will win this outstanding honor.

Tyler's first opponent will be South Georgia JC of Douglas, Georgia. Other teams entered in the tournament are Tiffin, Ohio (Region 9); Benton Harbor, Michigan (Region 12); Norfolk, Nebraska (Region 11); York, Pennsylvania (Region 13); Birmingham, New York (Region 15); Moberly, Missouri (Region 16); Bremerton, Washington (Region 3); Northeast, Mississippi (Region 7); Wingate, North Carolina (Region 10); Weber of Ogden, Utah (Region 4); Amarillo, Texas (Region 5); Ventura, California (Region 1); Stockton, California (Region 2); and Dodge City, Kansas (Region 6).

Last year's champion was Los Angeles JC of Los Angeles, California; but this year they have not qualified for the tournament. Ventura of California is taking their place. The Northeast team, which defeated Tyler last year in Regionals and in the Nation's Tourney, is returning to Hutchinson as champion of Region 7. Although Tyler has won four games from them, NEJC have defeated McNeese, which downed Tyler.

The pairings for the games and the time schedules are March 20, 12:30 p.m. Tiffin vs. Northeast; 2:00 p.m. Wingate vs. Benton Harbor; 3:30 p.m. Norfolk vs. Amarillo; 6:30 p.m. Ventura vs. Weber; 8:00 p.m. Tyler vs. South Georgia; 9:30 p.m. Stockton vs. Dodge City; March 21 at 2:00 p.m. York vs. Birmingham; 3:30 p.m. Moberly vs. Bremerton.

Tyler will play their second game against the winner of the Stockton-Dodge City tilt. No time has been announced yet but it will probably be Thursday afternoon. An alternate team has been chosen to play in the tournament if one of the others should be unable to participate. This team is from Fort Lewis in Colorado. They were runner-up in the Region 6 tournament.

The doctor's new secretary wanted to do everything exactly right. While typing some records, she came to the notation: "Shot in the lumbar region." Thinking it would be a good idea to clarify the statement she searched deeply for a better explanation. Finally it came, and she typed on the patient's record, "Shot in the woods."

TYLER JUNIOR COLLEGE, TYLER, TEXAS, MARCH 15, 1951

NO. 10

Mrs. Wallace Elected President TJCTA

Congratulations to Mrs. Carl Wallace! On March 3 at the meeting of the Texas Junior College Teachers Association Mrs. Wallace was elected president of the organization. Mrs. Wallace has previously served as second vice-president and later as first vice-president.

Here at T.J.C. she teaches English and Education and also sponsors the Future Teachers of America Club.

Sans Souci Dinner Ends Rush Week

Two weeks of rushing activities were completed recently when Sans Souci Sorority held its pledge dinner at the Brown Derby. Pledges for the following semester, according to Betty Dorrough, rush captain, are Alta Ruth Neill, Norma Markey of Henderson, Mary Lou Jackson, Beverly Williams, Joan Parker, and Shirley McBride of Tyler. President Jean Heard gave the opening speech, and Delores McKinney welcomed the pledges into the sorority. A slumber party was held after the dinner at the home of Delores McKinney.

The pledges can be distinguished by yellow ribbons with SS which are worn on the back of their heads.

Golf Class Available To Students, Faculty

TJC students are offered an opportunity for instruction in golf by Mr. Ralph Morgan of the Willow Brook Country Club at the expense of the school.

Classes meet in room 103 at 10:20 each Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, and, although no grades are to be given in the course, physical training credit, probably of one semester hour, is anticipated, according to an announcement made by Dean E. M. Potter.

Approximately twenty students are enrolled in the course and more can be accepted. Anyone interested should come to room 103 at 10:20 today or tomorrow.

Mrs. Byron Saunders, speech instructor, was the organizer of the class. Faculty members as well as students are eligible for instruction. Mrs. Saunders and Coach Hallmark already having enrolled.

At the meeting various resolutions were discussed and voted on. One outstanding resolution commended Dr. Edgar for proposing that teacher requirement pay be based on a 37-47 basis instead of the present 27-37 basis. This is important because it will increase the teacher retirement benefits.

Other Tyler teachers who have offices in the various sections for the coming year are the following: Mr. W. W. Jenkins—Chairman Social Studies Section; Mrs. Jean Browne—Vice-Chairman Speech Section; Miss Mildred Howell—Secretary Language Section; Mrs. Frances Flaherty—Secretary Administration Section.

Wife: "Wasn't it disgusting the way those men stared at that girl getting on the train?" Husband: "What train?"

'Hello Out There' Shown To Public

Monday and Tuesday nights this week the TJC drama department presented the one-act play, "Hello, Out There," that it will enter in the state contest, to audiences of students and Tyler citizens.

Charles Bowker played the leading role, while Shirley McBride played the ingenue. Other actors were Donald Peters and Marilyn Pope.

Before the performances Mrs. Jean Browne explained the musical background, "Death and Transfiguration" by Straus, which was used to get the mood for the play. Carolyn Barron, Bobby Kennedy, and Charles Stratton also explained work on the play.

BASKET BALL TOURNNEY CHANGES EASTER HOLIDAYS

Because of the National Basketball Tournament in Hutchinson, Kansas, March 20-24, the Easter Holidays have been changed. They are now scheduled for Thursday and Friday, March 22-23 instead of Friday, March 23 and Monday, March 26.

This change has been made to enable the students to go to the tournament without having to miss too many classes. This change may encourage others to go since they will not have to miss classes.

Classes will not meet Thursday, March 22 or Friday, March 23. Classes will meet Monday, March 26.

Apache Sent To Publisher

The last part of the copy for the 1951 Apache yearbook was sent to the publishing company last week.

Delivery date for the annual is not definitely known; however the publisher has guaranteed delivery well before the close of the semester.

MRS. MARY WALLACE

Alton Patton Has Church In Winnsboro

Rev. Alton Patton of Tyler has accepted an offer to be pastor of the Winnsboro First Baptist Church.

Rev. Patton will deliver his first sermon as pastor Easter Sunday. He is teacher of Bible at TJC and was associated missionary for Smith County for four years.

He was reared in Alba and is a graduate of Southwest Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth. He has served as a preacher in Oklahoma and the Baptist Church in Linden.

Ingford Wins Prize Miss Eyes Contest

At last, the official announcement of the winner of the "Miss Eyes" contest has been made. After two weeks, Charles Langford was announced as the winner.

All of you who guessed Polly Bothwell as Miss Eyes were right but not quite quick enough in casting your guess. While most of the names submitted were for Polly, there were some other girls who people thought were Miss Eyes.

These girls were Gloria Jennings, Ann Kidd, Dot Summerlin, Carol Inabnet, Rachael Janeway, Joan Parker, Dolores McKinney, Carlene Little.

By ANN LYNN SADLER

Blue eyes, brown hair, and the sweetest smile this side of heaven marks Anne Kidd—the gal we want to know more about.

Anne is now at TJC this semester. She attended Texas State College for Women last year. She heard TJC was so wonderful that she decided to come home and find out for herself. She agrees that this is a wonderful place to acquire that higher knowledge.

Anne graduated from Tyler High School last year. She was Girl's Forum president, an Ideal Girl and Girl of the Week. She was also a member of the Spanish Club, Tri-Hi-Y and Blue Brigade. At TJC she is in the Apache Belles and a member of the Future Teachers of America Club.

Since Anne has been my neighbor for a long-long time, I can assure you she is a fine one to know. Life to her is a gay and pleasant adventure, of which she must have a part.

Being around Anne is lots of fun so get to know her and see if I'm not right.

A notoriously nagging wife relented and bought her husband two neckties for his birthday. The husband finding them on the dresser donned one and made a grand entrance to breakfast.

"Hummph," snorted the nagger when she saw him, "so, you don't like the other one, eh?"

Jimmie came into the school room one morning plainly excited. "Yes, Jimmie, what is it?" asked the teacher.

"I didn't want to scare you," said Jimmie, hesitatingly, "but my Dad said if I didn't get better grades, someone is due for a licking."

Sportsmanship

It's no crime to be superior.

Not in America, at least.

Anyway it wasn't the last time we checked. Sometimes we are inclined to wonder a little bit, though, if some people don't think that there is. Like last Saturday night at the basketball tournament. Nobody can say truthfully that the Apaches did not play excellent basketball those three nights, nor that they did exhibit clean sportsmanship. Neither can any honest aspersions be cast at ace Apache O'Neal Weaver's performances. Chosen by an impartial committee as the top player of the tournament, he was outstanding in every respect.

But regardless of honesty and truthfulness, there were a few spectators present who criticized the team in general and Weaver in particular—venomously and unjustly.

Especially on Saturday night there were those who apparently thought they could do more good for their side by berating their opponents than by cheering their own teams. Their effect on the players was undoubtedly nil, and that on the other spectators was disgust, pure, strong disgust.

One spectator was particularly violent in his criticism. It was his opinion (he said) that the referees had been paid not to call fouls against Tyler players except in rare cases and NEVER to call them on O'Neal Weaver.

He hurled angry invectives against any players who scored against his team, although he did not even bother to applaud outstanding work on their part!

When he could think of nothing else to criticize about an opponent's basket, he said that it was "easy, anybody could do that. I could do it myself with my eyes shut." When one Tyler fan, driven to anger by this attitude, offered him a dollar if he would try a certain hook shot with his eyes OPEN during halftime, he merely muttered "You're crazy," and glared with rage.

It was apparent that he was afraid of his team's being defeated, and in his mind he had built up an escape mechanism to excuse them; that is, the idea that their opponents played dirty, dishonest basketball. Knowing the other team's superiority, he decided to think that their success was the result of cheating.

"It's no crime to be rich, if you obtained your riches honestly," said Dr. Ruth Alexander, the nationally-known economist, in her lecture to the Tyler Town Hall last week. The truth of this statement is obvious; there are few—except the Communists—who disagree with her.

It's no crime to be a superior basketball team or to be the most valuable player in a tournament, either. Any ideas to the contrary smack of envy and greed and are ruinous to good sportsmanship and school spirit. It's good we have no such ideas at TJC. Let's keep it that way. It is enthusiastically backing our own teams, not criticizing those of our enemies, that will help us to have the finest school with the greatest spirit and the most successful athletic teams next year and the year after that and the year after that—just as we have this year!

To-Kalon Girls Have Acceptance Luncheon

To-Kalon Sorority held a covered-dish luncheon in honor of their new pledges. Spring flowers were used for decorations. The luncheon, followed by a pledge meeting, was held March 3, at 12:00 at the home of Fontaine Zipf, 2024 E. Fifth.

Peggy Holland, a To-Kalon pledge, think on a moment's notice of Betty name. She only made a slight error: she bowed low, "How do you do, Miss. The prefix was right anyway."

Charlene Hewitt has a very soft Browne said, "I can't hear you." Char was because "She couldn't read it."

Betty Croft has become engaged. She Young, an ex-Apache in the Air Corps, married soon.

No wonder Charlie McNeill hasn't around the campus. It seems that Charlie has the mumps and went to his home to recuperate. We hope you're back with Charlie, but don't bring us the mumps.

We bet Don Kobe doesn't know whether wise to go to the Phi Theta Kappa convention. Everytime he did something wrong, Jean would add more weeks to his pledge. He may be through pledging by the time uates from TJC. But maybe they'll let him good behavior.

Texas Takes Over Convention Of Phi Theta Kappa In Kansas

By JEAN HILL

"The Eyes of Texas" were really upon the Phi Theta Kappa National Convention last week. At least half the delegates in Independence, Kansas, March 8, 9 and 10, were Texans, and by the close of the last session, many others were "converted" Texans.

Tyler delegates were Dwight Ewing, the National president; Jean Hill, official delegate of Alpha Omicron Chapter of TJC; Don Kobe, freshman delegate; and Miss Mildred Howell, sponsor of the local chapter.

The three days in a foreign country were packed with activities, social and business. Independence went all out to welcome the visitors and the Beta Omega Chapter of IJC deserves the highest praise for the success of the convention.

Registration of delegates from 13 states began Thursday morning and continued all day. In the afternoon there was an alumni tea and later everyone enjoyed a chili supper. The parade followed with the cars lined up according to their states. The state flags were in the lead cars of each group, and Texans had even made Texas signs for their cars.

At the high school auditorium the A Cappella Choir of Independence JC entertained. The speaker of the evening was Senor Roberto de la Rosa of Mexico. The Senor gave the delegates an idea of what Mexicans think of Americans and vice versa in a delightful and charming manner. He ended his address by telling them of a Mexican courtship and sang a few of his native songs.

Friday morning began with the first business session. Dwight Ewing officially opened the convention. After the seating of delegates and reports of the officers, legislation began and the delegates had a taste of politics. The afternoon session consisted of workshop meetings and the election of new officers.

At the banquet in Memorial Hall later that evening, the new officers were announced as George Dean, president, Wichita Falls; Bill Craig, first vice-president, Casper, Wyoming; Douthea McMillan, second vice-president, Paris, Texas; Donna Cameron, historian, New Jersey; and Jean Woolfolk, treasurer, Little Rock, Arkansas. The other officers are secretary Mrs. Margaret Mosal of Canton, Mississippi; and Harry Howland, editor of the Golden Key, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Bill Craig from Casper, Wyoming, is really a Tyler boy having grown up here and going to school with most of the freshmen in TJC.

Entertainment was provided at the banquet and later at an intermission during the dance, a floorshow was presented. Louie Kinman and his orchestra played.

Saturday morning the last business session met. Sadness prevailed over the meeting, especially for the sophomores. Those who have been in Phi Theta Kappa this past year and who have attended both conventions and knew the officers will always remember the days in Tyler and Independence. Those who were associated both times, really feel a bond of friendship and their eyes filled with tears as Dwight gave up his office and handed the president's gavel to George Dean. The sophomores' days as active members in Phi Theta Kappa are practically gone, but they will always be happy memories.

The year was another one of progress for the scholastic fraternity and they increased their number to 137 chapters. The national officers for 1950-51, other than Dwight, were Russell Bealieu, Perkinston, Mississippi, first vice-president; Samuel Willis Lanham, III, Schreiner Institute, second vice-president; and Fred Beihl of St. Joseph, Missouri, historian.

Saturday afternoon after filling up on buffalo burgers and visiting Gene Clark's Buffalo Ranch, the weary delegates began their journey home—wary from so much excitement, running around, lack of sleep, etc., but happy because of the fellowship, recreation and education they had received.

The Tyler delegation left for Independence last Tuesday and were the first to arrive on Wednesday. On their way home they came through Missouri and the Ozarks Mountains.

I think that there shall never be
A Senior quite so gay as thee.
A Senior just measured for cap and gown
Who goes to class without a frown.
A Senior who looks to the day
When his books he'll gaily throw away.
A Senior who wears a lasting grin,
And takes exams on the chin.
Seniors are liked by folks like me.
Because I'm one of them, you

Tyler Apaches Are Champions Of Region XI

O'neal Weaver Named Outstanding Player Earl Touchstone Of Kilgore Is Best Sport

By ROBERT DAVIDSON

Congratulations, Region Fourteen basketball champs, and sincere thanks to the students and fans that turned out to witness the tournament of champions. To Coach Wagstaff the second best sight next to the first place trophy was the thousands of students, faculty and citizens witnessing a tournament long to be remembered. Yes, Tyler Junior College is making basketball history.

There have been four National Jr. College Basketball tournaments, and one team has made the trip four times. Who? Naturally, Tyler Jr. College. They have won third place, first place, and fourth place the last three years. This year I'm sure they will go right to the top and be acclaimed the 1951 National Jr. College Champions. My prediction for All-American—O'Neal Weaver with a unanimous choice and either Mosher or Whillock coming through, according to which one is the hottest.

When the plane or train leaves and returns to Tyler there should be at least 500 students, and two to three thousand fans on hand to send them off and greet them. If you have something to be proud of, then it's your right to remain proud and show your respect for a great team. Of course, I doubt seriously if 150 of you will be there, but I imagine, come Sunday, there will be 12 boys and a coach to leave for Kansas to win for the people of Tyler as well as Texas and the Southwest. If at all possible the band should be there to send them off and also to bring them in.

The box score for the points shows as follows:

Player—	Fg.	Ft.	Pf.	Tp.
Weaver	32	19	8	83
Mosher	14	10	10	38
Whillock	14	3	15	31

Pearson	5	6	5	16
Flores	4	8	9	16
Browning	4	7	10	15
Markham	2	2	6	6
Kilpatrick	3	0	1	6
Stuckey	1	2	3	4
Moore	1	0	3	2

TOTALS 80 57 70 217

The five leading scorers on the team are Weaver, 826; Whillock, 428; Mosher, 396; Browning, 328; Flores, 251.

Well there it stands, take it as you may. One hundred and sixty teams have competed for spots in the national tournament by entries in regional tournaments. Out of that 160, only 16 teams throughout the nation are able to make the grade. Tyler is lucky enough to have one of these 16. If only the team could be lucky enough to have support on Sunday when they leave. I wonder? And now to end with the sport thought for today: To win a game without spirit is like seeing without eyes for there is no substitute for that sixth man.

O'NEAL WEAVER
Ace center and scorer Apaches is O'Neal Weaver is also returning to Hutto for the second time. The two years O'Neal has been a scorer for the black and this year, it is believed he leads the nation's center. The 6' 5" center will lead Apache quintet as they Georgia in their first game the NJCAA tourney.

Sports Contest Offered To TJC Student Body

Because it was buried in last week's Tops In Sports' Column by Robert Davidson, many of the students seem to know nothing of the sports contest which has just begun.

Business men in Tyler are sponsoring the contest which is open to all Tyler Junior College Students with the exception of the Pow-Wow editor and sports editor.

The first clue in the contest was "Smart in his lessons—Up in the air—Six points here or a hundred there." Since so few knew of the contest, no more clues will be announced until the next edition of THE POW-WOW.

As you have probably guessed, the person is an athlete, but he is not necessarily from TJC. He could be from any state in the union and he could be a participant in almost any sport.

If you would like to try to guess this mysterious person, drop a slip of paper with his name on it, and be sure to sign your own name and the day of the year and the time it was submitted so that there will be no dispute over who the winner is.

If no one guesses him in the next two weeks, there will be more clues, so watch for them. The prizes include a free chicken dinner, two passes to the show and a $3 cash prize.

Student Nurse: "Wake up, wake up."

Patient (sleepily): "What's the matter?"

Nurse: "I forgot to give you your sleeping pill."

The wife was learning to drive. A neighbor asked the husband how she was getting along with her driving.

The husband sighed and said, "Not too well. She took a turn for the worse last week."

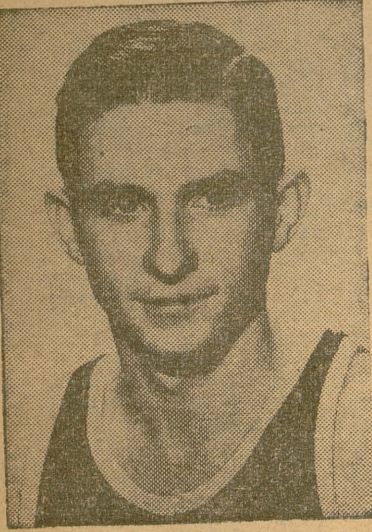

Employment Clerk: "Chief, there is an applicant here who says he used to make a living by sticking his right arm in a lion's mouth."

Chief: "How interesting. What's his name?"

Clerk: "Lefty."

Brochures Available To Dental Students

Shailer Peterson, Secretary of the Council of Dental Education recently sent a letter to advisors and counselors of pre-dental students. In this letter he enclosed posters which have been placed on the bulletin boards describing the Dental Aptitude Testing Program which is being given by the American Dental Association. There has already been a poster for procedure of 1951 applicants and the new poster describes the new procedures for the 1952 applicants. There is an overlapping of the two programs and the examinations for the 1952 applicants may be taken as early as May 1951. This testing date has been advanced so as to make it possible for applicants to have their test scores reviewed by the dental schools before the students complete their freshman year of pre-dental study.

JIMMY BROWNING

Jimmy Browning is one of the Apaches who will be returning to the National Basketball Tournament in Hutchinson for the second time. Jimmy is a sophomore in TJC, and is a candidate for graduation in June. He comes to Tyler from Chandler. Jimmy plays guard for the Apaches and is 5'11".

Future Teachers Name Chapter

The Future Teachers of America named their chapter at their meeting, Tuesday at 10:20. It will be The Mary Wallace Chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

At the meeting they discussed ways of raising money. They decided to collect the end flaps of the Mrs. Tucker's Meadowlake margarine. For each flap sent in, Mrs. Tucker will pay a nickel to any organization. They will appreciate any one's saving flaps for them. Turn them in to Mrs. Wallace.

Coy Stevens the Sailor: "I'm tired of being cooped up in this sub. I'm going to take a walk on the deck."

Jack Moore: "You can't do that. We're forty feet under water."

Coy: "Oh, that's all right, I have my rubbers on."

"I made a terrible mistake this morning. I gave my husband a dish of Lux flakes instead of corn flakes."

"My dear, was he angry?"

"Angry! He foamed at the mouth!"
